Greetings, FAME students and families! I hope you enjoyed Edition #1 of our FAME newsletter and you were able to explore getting messy in the different areas of the ARTS!

As we dive back into home learning after a great Spring Break, we’re going to explore FOOD and the ARTS! Have Fun with all the links, activities, and hidden challenges!

Please share pics, videos & stories of your Integrated Arts adventures with me at maanderson4@wsd.net!

DINNER THEATERS!

Desert Star Playhouse
Murray, UT

Dinner theater (sometimes called dinner and a show) is a form of entertainment that combines a restaurant meal with a staged play or musical. The earliest dinner theater dates all the way back to the Middle Ages. The early theatres served dinner in one room and staged the show in another.

The first formal dinner theatre in the U.S. is the Barksdale Theatre, which was founded in 1953 in Richmond, VA. The theatre started out using an adjoining room to serve buffet dinners for groups attending the show, and this eventually became available to all guests, becoming a dinner theatre.
